

Rescue Vs. Recovery Operations

What if each of these incidents had reports of people inside upon your arrival?

Describe your risk management principles you have put to work to make your decisions at these incidents.

After knockdown of fire, explain how you would conduct search operations.

What actions would an IC or other officer take if they arrived at an incident where companies were undertaking hazardous searches with no possibility of survival?

