Engine Company #1

1. You arrive to find an apartment building has collapsed. There are no reports of people missing or trapped. What are your initial actions as first responders at the awareness level?

2. What are your concerns regarding scene security and safety? How would you begin the rescue or recovery operation?

3. How would you notify a trained and equipped rescue team for this situation? Are there any other procedures at the department level that must be completed for this incident?

4. What actions can you take while the trained and equipped rescue team is responding and assembling on the scene?

5. What support activities can the first-in companies perform to assist the trained and equipped rescue team during the incident?
1. You arrive to find the water dept. supervisor at the top of the access to the water treatment pumping station. He states that a co-worker is unconscious at the bottom of the pit. What are your initial actions as first responders at the awareness level?

2. What are your concerns regarding scene security and safety? How would you begin the rescue or recovery operation?

3. How would you notify a trained and equipped rescue team for this situation? Are there any other procedures at the department level that must be completed for this incident?

4. What actions can you take while the trained and equipped rescue team is responding and assembling on the scene?

5. What support activities can the first-in companies perform to assist the trained and equipped rescue team during the incident?
Technical Rescue Incidents

1. You arrive to find a building supervisor at the lobby entrance to a high rise office building. He states that a worker has fallen from a platform and is hanging by a rope several stories in the air. What are your initial actions as first responders at the awareness level?

2. What are your concerns regarding scene security and safety? How would you begin the rescue or recovery operation?

3. How would you notify a trained and equipped rescue team for this situation? Are there any other procedures at the department level that must be completed for this incident?

4. What actions can you take while the trained and equipped rescue team is responding and assembling on the scene?

5. What support activities can the first-in companies perform to assist the trained and equipped rescue team during the incident?
Engine Company #1

1. You arrive to find a construction worker at a job site frantically trying to dig a co-worker out from under a trench wall that has collapsed. A backhoe is also in operation attempting to do the same. He states that a worker is trapped under the soil. What are your initial actions as first responders at the awareness level?

2. What are your concerns regarding scene security and safety? How would you begin the rescue or recovery operation?

3. How would you notify a trained and equipped rescue team for this situation? Are there any other procedures at the department level that must be completed for this incident?

4. What actions can you take while the trained and equipped rescue team is responding and assembling on the scene?

5. What support activities can the first-in companies perform to assist the trained and equipped rescue team during the incident?
1. You arrive to find a neighbor who witnessed a child go out onto the thin ice to retrieve a dog that fell through. The victim is still visible at the edge of the hole in the ice. What are your initial actions as first responders at the awareness level?

2. What are your concerns regarding scene security and safety? How would you begin the rescue or recovery operation?

3. How would you notify a trained and equipped rescue team for this situation? Are there any other procedures at the department level that must be completed for this incident?

4. What actions can you take while the trained and equipped rescue team is responding and assembling on the scene?

5. What support activities can the first-in companies perform to assist the trained and equipped rescue team during the incident?
Engine Company #1

1. You arrive at the scene of your local Forest Preserve on a Winter day where a teacher reports two of the children have been missing for approx. 45 minutes. What are your initial actions as first responders at the awareness level?

2. What are your concerns regarding scene security and safety? How would you begin the rescue or recovery operation?

3. How would you notify a trained and equipped rescue team for this situation? Are there any other procedures at the department level that must be completed for this incident?

4. What actions can you take while the trained and equipped rescue team is responding and assembling on the scene?

5. What support activities can the first-in companies perform to assist the trained and equipped rescue team during the incident?
Engine Company #1

1. You arrive at the scene of a car vs. train accident at a grade crossing. The front of the train and the car are approx. 200 yards down the track from the crossing. What are your initial actions as first responders at the awareness level?

2. What are your concerns regarding scene security and safety? How would you begin the rescue or recovery operation?

3. How would you notify a trained and equipped rescue team for this situation? Are there any other procedures at the department level that must be completed for this incident?

4. What actions can you take while the trained and equipped rescue team is responding and assembling on the scene?

5. What support activities can the first-in companies perform to assist the trained and equipped rescue team during the incident?
Technical Rescue Incidents

Engine Company #1

1. You arrive at a local factory to find a worker with his arm trapped in the gears of a food processing machine up to the elbow. What are your initial actions as first responders at the awareness level?

2. What are your concerns regarding scene security and safety? How would you begin the rescue or recovery operation?

3. How would you notify a trained and equipped rescue team for this situation? Are there any other procedures at the department level that must be completed for this incident?

4. What actions can you take while the trained and equipped rescue team is responding and assembling on the scene?

5. What support activities can the first-in companies perform to assist the trained and equipped rescue team during the incident?
Engine Company #1

1. You are dispatched during a heavy period of rain to reports of a car submerged in the water with occupants trapped inside. You arrive and find 2 or more occupants of the car on top of the car who are very anxious for rescue from the rapidly rising flood waters. What are your initial actions as first responders at the awareness level?

2. What are your concerns regarding scene security and safety? How would you begin the rescue or recovery operation?

3. How would you notify a trained and equipped rescue team for this situation? Are there any other procedures at the department level that must be completed for this incident?

4. What actions can you take while the trained and equipped rescue team is responding and assembling on the scene?

5. What support activities can the first-in companies perform to assist the trained and equipped rescue team during the incident?
Engine Company #1

1. You are dispatched to a local fishing lake for a man who has fallen from a row boat and is in distress. You arrive to find the person in the water away from the boat frantically calling for help and in much distress. He is beyond the reach of personnel on shore and no other boats are in the water in his area. What are your initial actions as first responders at the awareness level?

2. What are your concerns regarding scene security and safety? How would you begin the rescue or recovery operation?

3. How would you notify a trained and equipped rescue team for this situation? Are there any other procedures at the department level that must be completed for this incident?

4. What actions can you take while the trained and equipped rescue team is responding and assembling on the scene?

5. What support activities can the first-in companies perform to assist the trained and equipped rescue team during the incident?