Discuss the tools and methods necessary to gain entry through the above window types.

- Don't just think about breaking out the glass, consider forcible entry techniques designed to limit damage in non-life threatening situations.
- What types of rooms and/or occupancies would use the different types of windows? Why is this important to your size-up?